Dedication

We, the editors, are proud to dedicate the 1978-79 Toksali to a teacher and coach who greatly deserves this honor. There is no quality as rare as friendship, and we feel this person sets a great example of using it in whatever he does. For this, it is our privilege to dedicate this year's Toksali to Mr. Robin Houchin.

The 1978-79 Toksali Editors and graduating seniors would like to thank those who have made this yearbook a success. We are especially thankful to the junior editors for their cooperation throughout the production of our yearbook.

Our photographers worked hard at getting those exciting moments down on film. They spent extra time taking pictures during games, activities, and other special events.

Our business managers, who handle most of the Toksali's financing worked diligently toward the sales of our yearbook. Without their cooperation, this year's Toksali wouldn't have been such a success.

Another important function in the production of our yearbook is getting the advertisements organized. Our advertising managers are responsible for organizing the businesses' advertisements, laying them out, and billing the organizations at the appropriate time.

We would also like to thank our artist for all the excellent work she has done for the 1978-79 Toksali.

The 1979 baseball team worked hard in order to get a very good baseball program. The three seniors, Ken Barrick, Doug Larson, and Steve Morrow, went out to the various businesses in the communities and collected donations in order to receive new uniforms. The whole baseball team sold towels to raise money for a batting cage to use in the gym. The cage, along with a pitching machine, purchased last year, gave us an added advantage from other schools. The baseball team would like to thank everybody who contributed to the program. But most of all, we would like to give our sincere thanks to Coach Houchin. Even though he didn't have to do what he did, Coach Houchin organized and devoted much of his time and energy to us and the program. We really appreciate what he has done.

Thank you

& Powderpuff Game

Coach Newman advises the Faulty Faculty.

Coach Johnson just "bubbling" with excitement!

The Faulty Faculty puts it up for two.

What Form!! What Grace!! What a Joke!!

Beta Beauties show their respect for the faculty coaches.

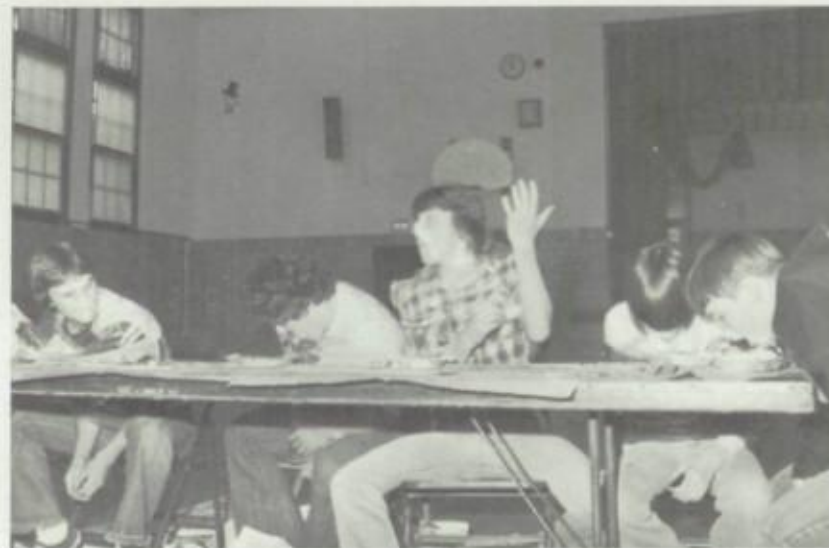

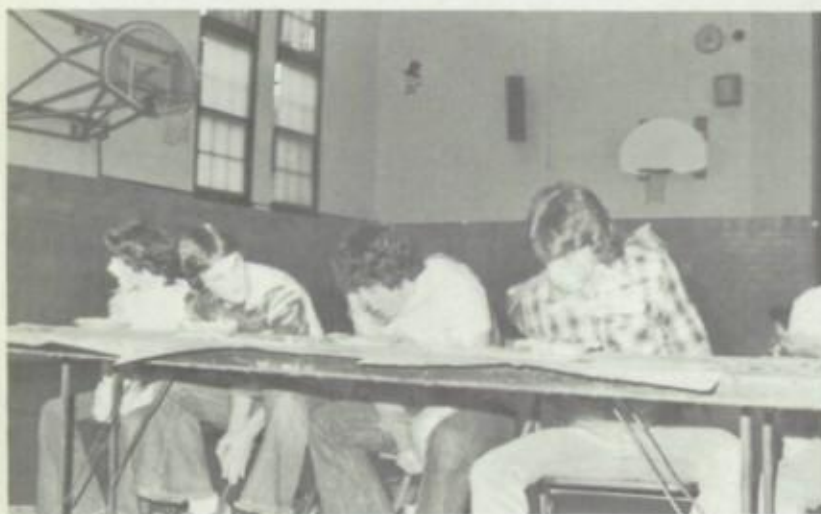

... Ditto.

Beta Club Activities

Beta Week held a variety of activities such as the "I hate Boys" and "I hate Girls" contests. An honorary lunch was held for the secretaries of the school and the Beta officers. Everyone enjoyed watching the annual Pie-eating contest and the Bubblegum-blowing contest. Last but not least, Beta Club members treated themselves to a pizza luncheon!!

Student Council Assemblies

To break the routine of our classes, student council books several acts to entertain us throughout the year. Previews of Progress showed us new scientific inventions of the past years. A ventriloquist, who made guest appearances on many shows, including Johnny Carson, amazed us with his talent. The Air Force Rock Band rocked us with their spectacular music.

Student Council Week

Student Council Week is the time of year when you can see three decades being covered by just walking down the halls and looking at the clothes throughout the week. Each day we dressed in different outfits to match the day—50's day, hobo day, hat, shade, t-shirt, and sneaker day, 60's day, and dress-up day. The week consisted of other activities such as slave sales, student council campaigns, and a student council-sponsored assembly.

During the fall and winter months, intramurals keep us busy over the noon hour. We play a lot of different sports—nerf tennis, badminton, basketball free throws, volleyball, and volley tennis. Practically all of the students participate in at least one intramural sport during the year; some, a lot more!

The Royal Court

Lisa McClure, Greg Musselman, Cathy Clarkson, Steve Morrow, Brenda Thames, Doug Larson, Susan Thames, Chuck Smith, Teresa Davidson, Scott Phillips.

Susan Thames, Junior Class President, welcomed everyone.

Senior Class President, Lisa McClure accepted the welcome.

Mike Newman and Kerry Henneberg read the Prophecy.

Just 'lounging' around

I've heard of cutting classes but this is ridiculous!

Dee-Mack's little homemakers.

Myah, Myah. I do declare we seem to have lost lil'ol Rhett.

Mr. Blick keeps his pupils happy, right Darrin?

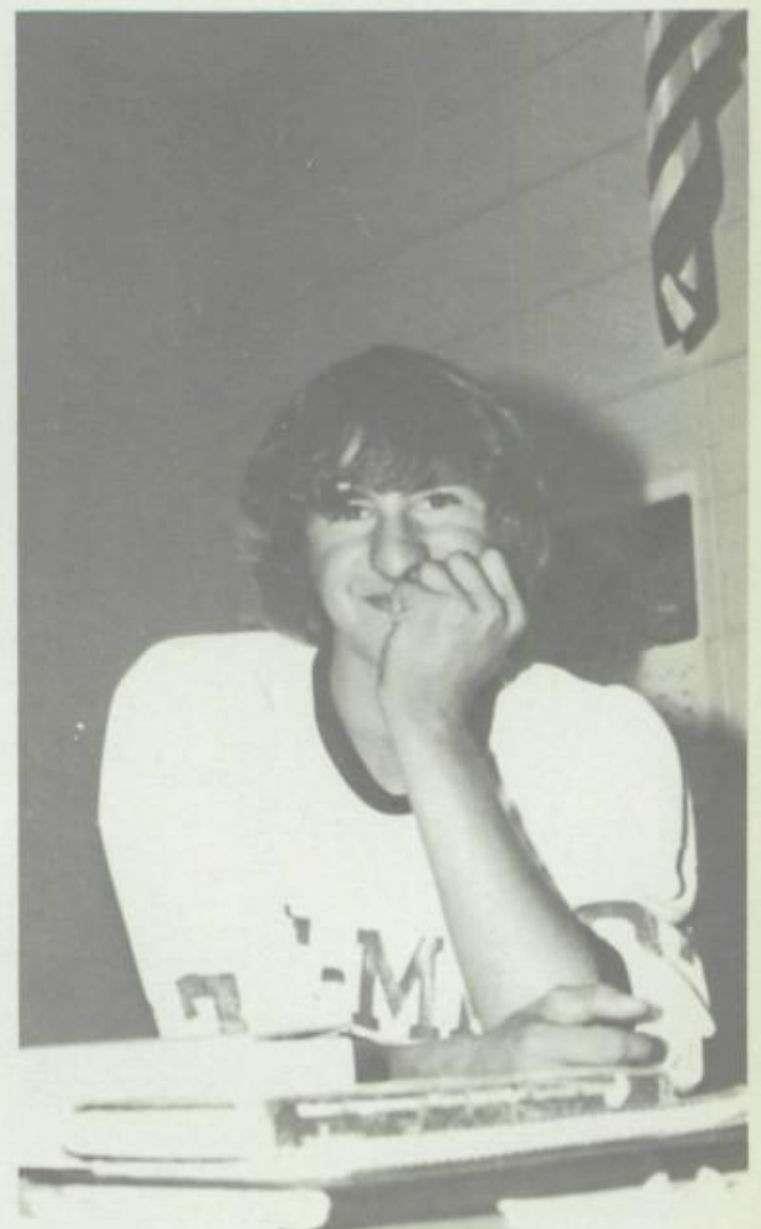

Mark went to Boston recently and learned a new trade...

A little fruity, wouldn't you say?

Funny—I've always thought this WAS 5th hour study hall.

Sweet and innocent? HA

Watch your shirt there, Kristy!

A Chenoa Redbird hat, Susan? Aw, c'mon!!

We love you, Mrs. Milton!!!!

Is something wrong, Mark???

Don't look at the camera! Just pretend you're working like the others!!

Forgive him. He hasn't been fed yet.

I don't think a body guard is necessary, Scott.

After you're finished with that Chris, you can wash our cars, and then . . .
